SECTION 2

The City Council, in good faith, makes this determination based on the following statistical analysis and demographic information:

- (a) The decennial 2010 population estimates of the U.S. Census statistics and demographics for this area reflected an estimated population of 15,349.
- (b) The City of Cibolo successfully submitted an application to the Census Count Question Resolution Program challenging the 2010 population estimate as the City was undercounted. In 2013, the U.S. Census released the Corrected 2010 Census Total Population for the City of Cibolo at 19,580.
- (c) The U.S. Census annual estimates of the residential population are based on the 2010 Census and reflect changes from the Count Question Resolution. As of July 1, 2014, the annual estimate for the City of Cibolo's population is 25,280.
- (d) The estimated 35 monthly new home permits multiplied by the timeframe between the 2010 and 2014 Census and with an average household size of 3.1, yields a population estimate over 25,000. City staff estimates coincide with the U.S. Census data that there are over 25,000 inhabitants in the city limits.
